

Mrs. William Smith Is Complimented at Post Nuptial Shower

Honoring Mrs. William Smith, the former Alice Roberta Dickson, Mmes. Henry Montoya and Harold Unander were co-hostesses at a recent post nuptial shower in the home of Mrs. Unander, 1442 West 214th st. Mrs. Andy L. Kerr assisted with the decorations.

Christ Lutheran Church Scene of Nuptial Rites

Traditional white satin fashioned with a tight bodice, lace yoke and matching lace inserts in the full length skirt which was cut en train was worn by Miss Alma Anderson, daughter of Mr. A. E. Anderson of 25630 Oak street when she became the bride of Bert J. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Anderson of 498 O'Farrell street, San Pedro Friday night.

The bride's finger-tip veil was caught up in a coronet of seed pearls and she carried white gladioli surrounding a detachable white orchid.

She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Zona Gayle Danielson was matron of honor. She wore yellow taffeta with tight fitting basque with drop shoulders and a full skirt and bustle. Completing her attire were long length gloves and a flowered halo. Her bouquet was of orchid gladioli.

Miss Lorraine Jeffery, in a blue gown, was bridesmaid and she carried yellow gladioli and wore a halo of matching flowers.

Tom Costello served as best man and Didrick Anderson, brother of the bride and Charles Anderson, the bridegroom's brother, were ushers.

The double-ring ceremony was read by Rev. Edwin Guebert at Christ Lutheran Church in San Pedro at 8 o'clock in the presence of more than 100 relatives and friends of the popular couple.

Mrs. Dorothy Searcy presided at the organ as accompanist for the soloist, Mrs. Lela Webster, as she sang, "Adoration," Grieg's "I Love But Thee," and "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony.

Large baskets of white gladioli, fern and tall white tapers decorated the chancel of the church.

For her sister's wedding, Mrs. Leonard Berglund wore a green dressmaker's suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow and white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother chose a

DEGREE OF HONOR HOLDS COURTESY NIGHT THURSDAY

Seventy San Pedro Degree of Honor lodge members met at the Woman's Club for a courtesy night program presided over by Bernice Burks of the Alhambra lodge.

Honored guests included Mrs. Mae Cleveland, state past president. The stations were filled by courtesy officers from other area lodges.

Mary Smith, service chairman, told of the work being accomplished by the group for veterans in the hospital at Sawtelle. She also gave two readings, "Do You Belong" and "Keep a Going."

State Officers Hazel Spaulding and Mae Cleveland spoke briefly of the spirit and good fellowship created by the courtesy nights.

Esther LeBlanc Johnson was presented a blanket on behalf of the lodge as a wedding present.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room by Annette Johnson and her committee, Julietta Doering, Jean Bechtold, Bertha LeBow and Louise Dohrman.

Birthday greetings were extended to Sibyl Pence, Mabelle Dominguez and Jessie Smith.

Among the officer guests were Bernice Burke and Effie Pence, San Pedro, and advisors, Richard Boyd of Talhith Cuni; Joel Hutton, Alhambra; Mildred Marsh, San Diego and Gordon Pence.

Thelma Thomas reported on the Hard-Times dance given by the Monterey Park lodge.

10th District PTA Maps Busy Program For Ensuing Year

An entire year's schedule is already in hand for Tenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. Ralph E. Lewis, second vice president, presented the program in full to the district board before she left for her trip to her family in Scotland. Mrs. Lewis will return in time for fall affairs.

In her absence her committee is carrying on, through Mrs. William Graham, elementary program service chairman; Mrs. H. George Slocomb, high school programs, and Mrs. Daniel J. Dailey, Founders' Day chairman. "Unfinished Business — the Child and His Future" is the general theme. Various phases will be developed at the five monthly meetings. One of these meetings, in December, is planned for night, in order that the man membership and interested fathers may attend. That meeting will also give institute credits to any teachers who attend.

First district meeting of the year will be held Oct. 7 in the Van Nuys high school. The December session will be in Polytechnic high school. Founders' Day is set for Thursday, Feb. 3, at Hamilton high, and the April convention will be held in Franklin high. Closing the 1949 season will be the June installation at San Pedro high school.

Miss Jane Reiss of Burbank played the accompaniment for Miss Kathryn Berridge, of Burbank, who sang "Through the Years" (Youman) and "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte). Mrs. Schroeder received her guests in a gown of dusty rose with white accessories and an orchid corsage, and Mrs. Zeller Sr. attended in blue crepe with pink accessories and orchids.

A reception for 250 guests followed in Guild Hall. Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Zeller left for a honeymoon in the High Sierras. They will make their home in Stockton.

Mrs. Zeller was graduated from West Mar College, Le Mars, Iowa. Her husband is a theological student at College of the Pacific, Stockton.

Among prenuptial courtesies arranged for the former Miss Schroeder was that given by the Junior Guild of Central Lutheran church in the home of Mrs. H. Wesley Roloff, 1543 Marcelina avenue.

The evening was spent informally. A gift consisting of polished silver dollars placed in a glass dust pan was presented the honor guest.

Another lovely party was a luncheon for the bridal party given by Mrs. E. J. Schroeder, mother of the bride, who entertained in the W. E. Rowen palace, 1327 Cota avenue. Places were set for twelve. Those present were Mrs. Mabel Zeller, Mrs. Lloyd White, Mrs. Everett White and Mrs. Rudolph Bowen.

Present were the honor guest and her sister-in-law, Miss Irene Schneider, of Illinois; Mesdames George Hatfield and H. P. Jensen of Torrance, Dwight Eubank and Ethan Schmidt, Lomita and Charles Montague, San Fernando.

AT BURCHETT HOME Mrs. Louise Henry returned by plane Sunday to her home in Yakima, Wash., following a week's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Burchett, of 1507 El Prado.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH PAUL ZELLER Wed in church ceremony . . .

Popular Couple Tell Wedding Vows Sunday

Lovely among late summer weddings was the beautifully impressive Sunday afternoon ceremony which united Kenneth Paul Zeller, son of Mrs. F. A. Zeller, of Burbank and the late Rev. F. A. Zeller, pioneer pastor of the church, and Miss Lorraine Kathryn Schroeder, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Schroeder, of 1633 1/2 Cota avenue.

Officiating at the ceremony were the bride's father and Rev. H. H. Hegge, pastor of Magnolia Community church, Burbank.

Given in marriage by Dr. Henry J. Friessen of Glendale, a family friend, the bride was beautifully attired in traditional white slipper satin fashioned with an overskirt of organza. Her flowers, which she carried on a white spraybook, were white orchids and ginger blossoms flown here from Hawaii.

Miss Betty Ball, wearing pale blue organza complemented by an arm bouquet of pink roses, was maid of honor. Mrs. Lloyd White, twin sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor in a gown of pastel yellow taffeta and organza with yellow roses.

Little Charlie McNees was flower girl in a white dotted Swiss gown with pink and blue flowers in her hair. Lloyd White attended his brother-in-law as best man and Everett White and Rudolph Bowen ushered.

Miss Jane Reiss of Burbank played the accompaniment for Miss Kathryn Berridge, of Burbank, who sang "Through the Years" (Youman) and "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte).

Mrs. Schroeder received her guests in a gown of dusty rose with white accessories and an orchid corsage, and Mrs. Zeller Sr. attended in blue crepe with pink accessories and orchids.

A reception for 250 guests followed in Guild Hall. Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Zeller left for a honeymoon in the High Sierras. They will make their home in Stockton.

Mrs. Zeller was graduated from West Mar College, Le Mars, Iowa. Her husband is a theological student at College of the Pacific, Stockton.

Among prenuptial courtesies arranged for the former Miss Schroeder was that given by the Junior Guild of Central Lutheran church in the home of Mrs. H. Wesley Roloff, 1543 Marcelina avenue.

The evening was spent informally. A gift consisting of polished silver dollars placed in a glass dust pan was presented the honor guest.

Another lovely party was a luncheon for the bridal party given by Mrs. E. J. Schroeder, mother of the bride, who entertained in the W. E. Rowen palace, 1327 Cota avenue. Places were set for twelve. Those present were Mrs. Mabel Zeller, Mrs. Lloyd White, Mrs. Everett White and Mrs. Rudolph Bowen.

Present were the honor guest and her sister-in-law, Miss Irene Schneider, of Illinois; Mesdames George Hatfield and H. P. Jensen of Torrance, Dwight Eubank and Ethan Schmidt, Lomita and Charles Montague, San Fernando.

AT BURCHETT HOME Mrs. Louise Henry returned by plane Sunday to her home in Yakima, Wash., following a week's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Burchett, of 1507 El Prado.

Mrs. Kenneth Boelter and Mrs. Clare Slaback, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Ray Peer, Mrs. Hilda Flindley, Miss Betty Hall, Mrs. W. E. Bowen and the hostess. Those assisting the hostess were Mrs. Bowen and Mrs. Lancaster. Centerpiece consisted of pink and white carnations and candles.

At another attractively arranged affair the popular young lady was recipient of a shower of lovely towels for her new home. This party also was given in the Bowen patio with games as the diversion. Deliculous refreshments were served by Mrs. Bowen and Miss Betty Ball.

Several new stars have been added to the roster; headed by Marilyn Ruth Tak, Olympic Games star and former Canadian skating queen. Other newcomers include Narena and Norris, acrobatic-adagio whizzes; Jackson Nelson and Alex Jackson, hand-to-hand balance wizards; and comics, John Mulvey and Ed Dungan.

Roy Shipstad, the world's smoothest figure skater, tops the long list of returning favorites. Also back are Frick and Frack, Betty Schalow, High Hendrickson, Mac Ross, Billy Stine, Monica Moran, Harris and Phyllis Legg, Hazel Franklin, the Schramm Twins, Dick Rasmussen, Ole Eriksen, Les Hamilton, Virginia Morrison, Camillo Romero Jr. and the Scott-vold Twins.

Mail orders for the premiere and all other performances in the short run are on sale now at the Pan-Pacific.

Torrance Ladies at Memorial Luncheon for Noted Musician

Nadine Nikol and Kathryn Buffington, musicians of Torrance, last week attended a luncheon honoring the memory of the late Charles Wakefield Gadam, sponsored by the Compton Chamber of Commerce at the Abraham Lincoln School.

Princess Tsarina, famous singer who toured with Charles Wakefield Cadman, spoke feelingly of Mr. Cadman, Mrs. Leand Albertson Irish, a fluent speaker, gave interesting points of Mr. Cadman's life and his great work as a musician.

A lovely musical program, presented by young singers and violinists with Emma Bartlett as the conductor, was enjoyed by the group. Violin numbers and piano solos also were appreciated.

Another special guest was the noted violinist and conductor Joseph Piastor of Palos Verdes Estates.

AT FULLERTON Mrs. C. E. Ward is visiting at the Fullerton home of Mr. and Mrs. John Osborne.

RATIFICATION OF PTA COUNCIL CHAIRMEN GIVEN

Representatives from the various associations comprising Lomita-San Pedro P.T.A. Council gathered at Peck's Park Thursday for a get-acquainted meeting and picnic lunch. Plans also were discussed for the School of Information to be held at Narbonne High School Wednesday, Sept. 1 and the following chairmen ratified for the ensuing year:

Unit achievements, Mrs. LeRoy Wright; magazines, Mrs. Arthur Rostal; program, Mrs. Don Wolf; membership, Mrs. Charles B. Humphrey; room mother, Mrs. R. Stagnaro; music, Mrs. Don Olson; home service and art, Mrs. F. F. Allen; radio, Mrs. J. C. Miller; health, Mrs. C. E. Woodward; child welfare, Mrs. E. M. Bernardi; hospitality, Mrs. R. Hall; registration, Mrs. C. Isaacs; publicity, Mrs. M. L. Thomas; study group coordinator, Mrs. J. M. Ortega; youth services, Mrs. Fred A. Miller, Community Chest and coordinating council, Mrs. Hazel Stanton; legislation and juvenile protection, Mrs. Willard Conyers and motion picture and recreation, Mrs. Marvin Scott.

Attending from this section of the council were Mmes. J. J. Millard, of Torrance, Harbor director; Herman Ludwig, president Harbor City P.T.A.; E. M. Bernardi, Don Wolf and C. Humphrey, Halldale Avenue P.T.A.; L. J. Cressey, president and E. R. Schmidt, Lomita Elementary P.T.A.; Donald Brown, G. C. Tait, Orange Street P.T.A. and Mrs. E. R. Walker, council president, who conducted the meeting.

PTA FAMILIES RETURN HOME FROM RADFORD

Among the local families who enjoyed Tenth District P.T.A.'s Camp Radford in the San Bernardino Mountains this month were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Walker, son Eldredge and daughter Marilyn of 1817 W. 257th street; Mrs. J. J. Millard, Torrance; Raymond Denton of WALTERIA and Mrs. K. L. Haar, daughter, Mary Jo and son Kenneth of Wilmington.

Mrs. Walker is president of Lomita-San Pedro P.T.A. Council; Mrs. Millard is harbor representative for Tenth District P.T.A. and Mrs. Haar, president of Gardena-Wilmington P.T.A. Council.

The camp is operated for a two-week period each year by Tenth District P.T.A. and has become so popular during the past dozen years that reservations have to be restricted to the very active current membership of the locals, councils or district.

AT MOUNTAIN RESORT Home from several days sojourn at Big Bear Lake are Mesdames W. I. Laughon, L. Ahrens, J. R. Wilkes and Malcolm Garton.

Drill Captain Sarah Neukemper asked that those taking part in the initiation on Sept. 13 meet with her for practice, tentative date being Sept. 8.

Nine candidates were elected to receive the Rebekah degree. Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Cynthia Harlow, Mabel Crabtree and Solda Beaver.

PARENTS VISIT House guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Lichtenberg for the past few weeks have been her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Poe, of Boulder, Colo. Mr. Poe is dean of pharmacy at University of Colorado.

Halldale Ave. PTA Ratifies Chairmen at Informal Meet

Halldale PTA held its first "come as you are" breakfast Tuesday morning at the home of the president, Mrs. H. T. Seaman. Card tables were set up to accommodate the "breakfasters," who enjoyed coffee and hot doughnuts. "Kidnappers" Mesdames E. M. Bernardi, Les Smith and Wayne Sidwell helped gather the guests.

An informal board meeting followed, at which the following chairmen were ratified:

Mrs. Oliver Evans, room mother; Mrs. O. P. Tibbs, room mother; Mrs. Jack Harris, recreation; Mrs. W. E. Lewis, safety; Mrs. Charles Humphrey, child welfare; Mrs. Don Wolf, exceptional children; Mrs. V. W. Wisco, hospitality; Mrs. Gleam Spratt, parent education; Mrs. W. R. Lewis, newsette; Mrs. W. C. Sidwell, publicity; Mrs. T. E. Gibson, art; Mrs. Don Grey, membership; Mrs. A. O. Moon-eyham, registration; Mrs. Ward Galbreath, ways and means; Mrs. John Wright, health; Mrs. H. I. Rogers, Community Chest; Mrs. Francis McGuire, life membership; Mrs. Leota Norris, community youth; Mrs. M. Burton, radio and motion pictures; Mrs. O. D. Barnard, home making.

Board members have been urged by their president to attend the school of instruction at Narbonne High School on Wednesday, Sept. 1.

REBEKAH LODGE 295 OUTLINES PLANS FOR VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge No. 295 held their regular meeting on Monday evening at the Woman's clubhouse, Redondo Beach, with Nola Grand Martha Spikes presiding.

District Deputy President Winifred Jones announced that the School of Instruction, which was originally planned for the latter part of September, has been postponed until Oct. 25.

Plans are under way for a card party to be held the latter part of September.

Members were asked to save clothing for a rummage sale to be held in the near future, the exact date to be announced when a building can be secured.

Drill Captain Sarah Neukemper asked that those taking part in the initiation on Sept. 13 meet with her for practice, tentative date being Sept. 8.

Nine candidates were elected to receive the Rebekah degree. Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Cynthia Harlow, Mabel Crabtree and Solda Beaver.

PARENTS VISIT House guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Lichtenberg for the past few weeks have been her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Poe, of Boulder, Colo. Mr. Poe is dean of pharmacy at University of Colorado.

This man is your registered pharmacist. When you bring your prescriptions to the Professional Pharmacy, you can depend on him to fill them properly with the finest ingredients.

Professional Pharmacy

Medical Center of Torrance 2055 TORRANCE BLVD. Phone Torrance 14 —Free Delivery Service—

A Gay Money Saving Event ---

END OF MONTH SALE

Torrance and Lomita shoppers are beginning to open their eyes when the Gay Shop stages an "END OF THE MONTH SALE" . . . because they are discovering that genuine bargains on much wanted merchandise are ALWAYS offered. So join the value-wise shoppers at the Gay Shop this week end.

CLOSE OUT! ALL NEW SUMMER

COTTON FROCKS $5

VALUES TO $17.95

You never expected to buy such clever cottons at this price . . . only $5. All are new styles, many have just arrived. . . . but the season will soon be over. It is your profit and our loss. Come and get them!

YOUR CHOICE Famous Names

SWIM SUITS

1/2 PRICE

THESE WILL GO QUICKLY

Sheer $2.25 51 Gauge—15 Denier

NYLONS

Slight irregularities

$1.19

Limit 2 prs. to Customer

Reg. $5.95

COTTON 99 SKIRTS

For Early Season Shoppers

Reg. $55.00—New Fall Shades

GABARDINE COATS $39.95

Buy now and save more than $15.00 on your new fall and winter Gabardine Coat! That's just what you will be able to do this week end at Gay's. Hurry!

Regular 79c

Panties

Pastel Colors

2 for $1

Regular $3.95

Play Suits

$1

$5.95 Suits—$1.99

In Torrance It's The Gay Shop

1319 SARTORI AVE. — TORRANCE NO INTEREST—NO EXTRA CHARGES FOR GAY'S 30-60-90 DAY CHARGE ACCOUNT

School Friends Gather at Home of Mrs. Bradford

A reunion of school friends was an enjoyable affair Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. George A. Bradford Jr., 1323 Beech avenue.

Arrival of Mrs. Willard Schneider, the former Miss Emma Erickson of Lomita, with her husband from his U. S. Navy base in South Carolina, was the incentive for the informal gathering. Lt. (jg.) and Mrs. Schneider are enroute to his new base in Honolulu.

The ladies spent the evening reminiscing and at a late hour delicious buffet refreshments were served from a table attractively centered with colorful fuchsias in bubble bowl arrangement.

Present were the honor guest and her sister-in-law, Miss Irene Schneider, of Illinois; Mesdames George Hatfield and H. P. Jensen of Torrance, Dwight Eubank and Ethan Schmidt, Lomita and Charles Montague, San Fernando.

AT BURCHETT HOME Mrs. Louise Henry returned by plane Sunday to her home in Yakima, Wash., following a week's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Burchett, of 1507 El Prado.

IDEAL GIFT FOR MOTHER AND BABY

ONE MONTH'S DIAPER SERVICE Ivory Soap — Soft Water Boric Rinse — Sterilization Individual Package

Phone Plymouth 5-0011

CRADLE BABY LAUNDRY . . . and DIAPER SUPPLY

10708 So. Normandie

Pick-up & Delivery

ONLY THE EL PRADO FURNITURE STORE

YOUR APPLIANCE CENTER CAN OFFER

YOU THIS CHOICE OF NAME BRAND

Washing Machine

- Maytag
• General Electric
• Whirl Pool
• Norge
• Speed Queen

Bendix Automatic $219.95

FOR YOUR PROTECTION THE ABOVE APPLIANCES

ARE SOLD UNDER THE FAIR TRADE LAW AND ARE GUARANTEED FOR ONE YEAR

Buy Now — Before Uncle Sam's Credit Restrictions

—Make Your Down Payment and Monthly Payments Much Larger.

Phone 1067

1306 Sartori

1220 El Prado